

Minister Cynthia Dixon

Minister Dixon is an energetic Ambassador for Christ who preaches with power, passion, and purpose for the Kingdom of God. She gave her life to the Lord at a very young age and accepted the call into ministry in December 1994. She is an associate minister at First Waughtown Baptist Church in Winston-Salem, NC under the dynamic leadership of Dr. Dennis Bishop, Senior Pastor.

Minister Dixon is a devoted wife and mother. She believes that her first ministry is her family. She is the wife of 28 years to Minister Jarrod Dixon, who is an author with 6 published books. She and her husband have 2 sons – Jarrod Dixon II, residing in Rogers, Arkansas, and Jiwann Dixon of Atlanta GA, who is married to her lovely daughter-in-law, Shade’ Hyche-Dixon.

Minister Dixon has a heart for souls and her mission is true kingdom building. She is highly committed to the work of the ministry and has served faithfully in many capacities including Overseer of the New Convert/ New Member ministry, Bible Study Instructor, Youth Instructor, Vacation Bible School Instructor, Missionary, and Intercessor. She holds the prestigious honor of being the first Woman to preach at the Forsyth County Deacon’s Union in Winston-Salem, NC. Not only is she a faithful servant in her home church, but she has traveled to many churches spreading the message of the gospel doing conferences, workshops, and various engagements. In July of 2011, her travels took her overseas and she had the opportunity to go to two countries in Africa: Ghana and Ethiopia.

Minister Dixon is employed by the Winston-Salem Forsyth County School system as a Business Education Teacher at North Forsyth High School. She received her undergraduate degree in 1990 from UNC Chapel-Hill with a degree in Business Administration, a masters in Divinity from Shaw University in 2014, and a masters in Executive Leadership from Gardner-Webb University in 2018. On December 4th, 2008, she graduated with a certificate in “School of Ministry” from Dr. Cindy Trimm’s Kingdom University. She is the founder of Cynthia Dixon Ministries, Inc., a ministry devoted to Kingdom Empowerment and Equipping. Her ministry events are detailed on her website: www.cynthiadixon.org. Most importantly, she loves the Lord with all her heart and soul and considers herself a humble servant of Jesus Christ. Her greatest passion is spending time in the presence of God. Her favorite scripture is “Seek ye first the Kingdom of God, and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you.” Mathew 6:33.
